

I am taking the time to write about my concern that low power FM transmitters could cause cause interference to radio programming that our family enjoys from KLOVE radio. KLOVE transmitts on 91.9 MHz and 99.3 MHz in our area. Please consider interference problems that the low power FM transmitters could pose to the 10 Watt translator service we currently enjoy. Thanks Jeff Maxam